

My light

Now we`re standing face to face
Eyes to eyes
Holding hands
And I think `bout how it all began
We had sunshine, we had rain

*But we managed it
And fought for it
And we lived for it
And dreamed of it
And now, baby, now, it`s all coming true*

I hold you every day and night
You will always be my lighthouse light
And wherever you go
And whatever you do
I`ll stand by your side
Cause you are my light

I can see a tear on you
It`s time to say
This one word
And our love, will be so deep and strong
Will Take every storms, goes on and on

*We will manage it
And fight for it
And live for it
Believe in it
Cause now, baby now, is the moment we`ve been waiting for ( rit.)*

I hold you every day and night
You will always be my lighthouse light
And wherever you go
And whatever you do
I`ll stand by your side
I hold you every day and night
You will always be my lighthouse light
And wherever you go
And whatever you do
I`ll stand by your side
Cause you are my light
