

Papparazzi`s World

Every day, every night
x- rayed from every side in a glass house always visible scanned from head to toe

They all search for the scars
Papparazzis make the stars
Behind trees, hidden in cars
There is never a “ no”

Standing in the spotlight
All the eyes are just on you
Standing in the spotlight
They can hear, they can see, everything you do

Everybody`s watching you
Focusing all what you do
They need scandals, they need rumours
Wanna know every move

Headlines for the innocent
Living all their perfect lives
Criticising with no interest
What`s the real truth

Standing in the spotlight
All the eyes are just on you
Standing in the spotlight
They can hear, they can see, everything you do

When you wanna have success
You must play the game more or less
You must take what you get
And howl with the pack

Standing in the spotlight
All the eyes are just on you
Standing in the spotlight
They can hear, they can see, everything you do
